

Seattle Department of Neighborhoods 2012 Small and Simple Projects Fund - Fall Round

Neighborhood	Organization	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	Match Amount
Ballard	Friends of Kirke Park	Kirke Park Trellis Installation	Friends of Kirke Park will complete the park's "living room" trellis. The trellis was designed through community input to serve as a focal point for neighbors coming together and as a community gathering point.	$16,000	$16,416
Capitol Hill	Capitol Hill Chamber of Commerce	Blitz Arts Walk	The Blitz Arts Walk will be expanded and promoted through a website upgrade, promotional signage for venues, and involving community members as actively participating volunteers.	$15,265	$8,610
Central District	Garfield High School PTSA	Emergency Preparedness in the Central District	Community residents and students from Garfield High School will partner with the Central Area Senior Center to identify vulnerable seniors and provide them with emergency preparedness training and disaster kits.	$15,000	$25,200
Squire Park	206 Zulu	Boogie Up the Block	This project will support "Boogie Up the Block," a free two-day urban arts festival in the Squire Park neighborhood. Its aim is to engage and strengthen the community through music, dance, entertainment, and activities for all ages.	$19,900	$29,520
Rainier Valley	Community Steering Committee	Rainier Valley Math and Science Tutoring	A free math and science drop-in Saturday tutoring center will be developed for all students and community members.	$13,800	$8,500
Chinatown-ID	Hokubei Hochi Foundation	Relocation and Renovation of Nagomi Tea House	The Nagomi Tea House will be relocated and renovated in order to further the understanding and appreciation of Japanese arts and culture through educational projects and events.	$20,000	$26,920
Citywide	Got Green	Young Workers in the Green Economy	Got Green will engage 150 youth and young adults to create ground-up solutions to unemployment, low wage work, and their disconnect from education and training.	$20,000	$22,980
Citywide	Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance - Seattle	Asian Pacific Islander Workers' History Project	The contributions of low wage Asian Pacific Islanders to the economic and social life of Seattle will be captured in a traveling photo exhibit.	$19,040	$19,300
Citywide	Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience	Beyond Talk 2	The Wing Luke Museum will have a new exhibit titled "Beyond Talk 2" that will explore race and racism with a focus on youth voices and intergenerational conversations.	$20,000	$53,620

Neighborhood	Organization	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	Match Amount
Citywide	Gay City Health Project	Gay City Community Auditorium	Improvements will be made to the Gay City Auditorium to include a tech booth and lighting grid, sound and projection systems, and chairs and risers.	$19,000	$37,500
High Point	High Point Neighborhood Association	High Point Educational Apiary	The Commons Park P-Patch community garden will expand to include an educational beehive enclosure (apiary) and pollination garden. This project will provide educational opportunities and a place to host gatherings.	$20,000	$28,700
Delridge	Students for Equality	Westwood – Red Lining, Truck Farms & Internment	The Westwood-Redlining, Truck Farms, & Internment project will involve local youth in exploring the history and impact of redlining and truck farms in Delridge.	$20,000	$35,600
Chinatown-ID	International Examiner	Preserving Seattle's API Photographic Heritage	The International Examiner will identify, catalog, and make publically available its 2000+ photographic images from the past 40 years of history in the International District.	$15,000	$16,700
Chinatown-ID	Chinatown-ID Business Improvement Area	Chinatown-ID Multi-Lingual Street Signs Project	The Chinatown-International District Business Improvement Area (CIDBIA) will add translated street signs in Chinese and Japanese within the boundaries of Seattle's Chinatown and Japantown neighborhoods, with the possibility of expanding to Little Saigon.	$20,000	$21,220
Belltown	Friends of Belltown Art	Storefronts Belltown	Friends of Belltown Art will activate the streetscape with short-term pop-up storefront art projects.	$12,375	$24,130
Belltown	Belltown Business Association	Belltown BIA Outreach and Education Campaign	The Belltown Business Association (BBA) will provide outreach and education to Belltown residents and potential ratepayers to share the benefits of joining the Metropolitan Improvement District.	$19,200	$15,420
Capitol Hill	Friends of Federal and Republican Open Space	Broadway Hill Park Construction Documents	This project will complete the construction documents for development of a park at Federal Ave E and E Republican. Proposed elements for the park include a P-Patch community garden, seating, picnic area, and sandbox to name a few.	$18,025	$9,500
Capitol Hill	Jubilee Women's Center	Emergency Preparedness for Jubilee Neighbors	The Jubilee Women's Center will develop and implement a plan for emergency and disaster preparedness for 126 staff, residents, on-site volunteers, clients and neighbors. Project will include training and disaster kits and supplies.	$10,000	$10,180
Madison Valley	Madison Valley Community Council	Madison Valley Neighborhood Landmark	The Madison Valley Community Council and Merchants Association will plan and design a neighborhood landmark sign in the heart of the district at East Madison St and 28th Ave East. Plans may include a Madison Valley sign, landscaping, a means to advertise events, and installation of a walkway or art elements.	$20,000	$16,000

Neighborhood	Organization	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	Match Amount
South Park	Friends of South Park Community Kitchen	South Park Community Kitchen	The project will provide a space for residents to cook a communal meal, discuss nutrition, and learn about healthy lifestyles. The kitchen will be open free of charge to all South Park residents and will use produce supplied by Marra Farm.	$8,964	$6,720
Beacon Hill	Snoqualmie P-Patch	Snoqualmie P-Patch Neighborhood Improvements	The project will include Improvements at the Snoqualmie P-Patch community garden including a new fence and entryway that will make the site more accessible, appealing, and welcoming to the public.	$19,980	$19,981
Beacon Hill	El Centro de la Raza	José Martí Child Development Center Renovation	This project will provide a series of renovations to the José Martí Child Development Center (JMCD), bringing it up to structural, seismic and aesthetic standards.	$20,000	$20,000
Magnolia/Queen Anne	Magnolia Queen Anne Emergency Preparedness Committee	MIQA Disaster Response Plan	As part of the Disaster Response Plan of the Magnolia-Interbay-Queen Anne Emergency Preparedness Committee, this project will enhance identified HUB sites with supplies and materials and provide CPR/First Aid training and outreach for emergency preparedness.	$20,000	$29,580
Lake City	Lake City Neighborhood Alliance	Cedar Park/Lake City North Disaster Preparedness	This project will ready residents and businesses in Lake City neighborhoods to prepare for emergencies. It will promote awareness and individual and family-based neighborhood disaster readiness. It will also develop the Cedar Park/Lake City North Communication Hub.	$18,000	$36,350
University District	Friends of Homeless Young People	Music is my life: Art by Homeless Young People	This project will prepare and execute a public art show created by homeless young people. The show will be held at the Henry Art Gallery.	$12,463	$7,790
Sand Point	Sandpoint Elementary PTA	Sand Point Community Garden and Playground Project	This project will begin the second phase of site development and playground enhancements. Four to six additional playground structures will be added to provide more play opportunities for students and children in the community.	$20,000	$20,000
Sand Point	Friends of NAS Seattle Historic District	Sand Point Oral History Project	The oral history project will record the lives of people who lived or worked at Sand Point Naval Air Station Seattle during its early history. A travelling exhibit of their stories will be created.	$10,860	$5,430
University District	Friends of University Playground	Fun and Fit University Playground Project	A teen/adult fitness area will be installed to promote safe and healthy activities and promote the expanded usability of the park using Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED) strategies.	$20,000	$20,620

Neighborhood	Organization	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	Match Amount
Laurelhurst	Play it Safe at Laurelhurst Park	Laurelhurst Park Play Equipment	New play equipment designed for 5 to 12 year olds will be purchased and installed at Laurelhurst Park.	$13,000	$22,719
Phinney Ridge	Phinney Mural Restoration Committee	63rd Street Mural Project	This project will bring together neighbors and businesses to create a mural for the community. It will include issuing a call for artists and soliciting input from the community to design, install, and maintain a mural in the North 63rd Street and Aurora underpass.	$16,954	$19,100
Greenwood	Greenwood P-Patch	Greenwood P-Patch Infrastructure Redesign & Revival	The Greenwood P-Patch community garden will hire a consultant to work with the gardeners and neighbors to create a plan for improvements at the Greenwood P-Patch.	$19,500	$12,940
Rainier Valley	Ethiopian Community in Seattle	ECS Community Computer Lab	The Ethiopian Community in Seattle will offer computer literacy/instruction and open-lab opportunities that will include instruction in Amharic, Tigrigna and Oromo. Classes will be offered on-site at the Ethiopian Community Center for seniors, adults, and youth.	$20,000	$13,000
Rainier Valley	FAST Fathers and Sons Together	Fathers for Change	A series of four projects will strengthen communities by fostering positive relationships between fathers and sons through social and educational activities. The events will provide speakers, food, entertainment, and networking.	$11,300	$3,750
Alki Beach	Seal Sitters	Seal Sculpture & Community Education Project	Seal Sitters plans to build a more connected West Seattle community and remind all 'to share the shore' and protect marine mammals by launching the 'Year of the Seal' in 2013. The culmination will be 'Harbor Seal Day' with the official unveiling of a seal mom and pup sculpture on Alki Beach.	$15,000	$42,960
West Seattle	Nature Consortium	Arts in Nature Festival	The Arts in Nature Festival, a free, all ages, community celebration, will encompass live music, dance, performances, hands-on arts and naturalist activities, sound and visual art installations, along with other activities. It will occur on August 10 and 11, 2013 at Camp Long. The event aims to accomplish Nature Consortium's mission to connect people, arts and nature.	$20,000	$60,650
West Seattle	Friends of Schmitz Preserve	Restoration of Schmitz Preserve	Friends of Schmitz Preserve will hire a professional crew to assist with habitat restoration in areas where volunteers can't work due to terrain and equipment.	$5,593	$5,600
Totals:				$604,219	$773,206